

Account of Purley on Thames

Sulham Home Farmhouse

R200002 6/4//2017

The Farmhouse at Sulham Home Farm no longer has any connections to the Farm. It is a grade II listed building located to the east of the industrial estate.

Details from DOE schedule:

Location and Summary

SU 67 NW - south east of junction of Sulham Lane and Purley Rise. Listing Grade II (2/51) - main house Grade II (2/50) - barn to west

Farmhouse Exterior

C16 with C18 and C19 refacing and additions. Timber framed with later red brick facing, red brick to left with brick and flint plinth and exposed roof truss above with herringbone red brick nogging. Old tile roof.

2 framed bays with half hipped cross wing to right and projecting half hipped cross wing to left. 1½ storeys with 2 storey additions. Plinth to left, plat bands to left and right and 2 gabled eave dormers with 2-light and 3-light casements. Large ridge stack off-centre to right, end stack to rear at left and stack at front to left. First floor 6-light mullioned and transomed window to right,, 2 ground floor 6-light mullioned and transomed windows to left with ground floor relieving arch. 4-panelled door with glazed upper panels to left of second window from left. C19 glazed porch.

Farmhouse Interior :

Substantial remains of timber frame with queen post trusses and arch bracing. C16 fireplace.

Barn Exterior:

C18 .Timber framed with brick plinth and weatherboarding. Slate roof. 7 framed bays with aisles. Gabled waggon entrys to north and south in second and sixth bays.

Barn Interior :

Double purlin roof with windbraces and stepped double queen post trusses with transverse and longitudinal bracing

