

Account of Purley on Thames

Well Cottages

R200205 28/1/2018

Well cottages were a pair of cottages on the north side of the main road where is now the entrance to Nursery Gardens

Rita Denman's talk to Project Purley

Part of the Millennium Series Ex R000402

Well Cottages, Oxford Road: A pair of tiled-roofed one-up and one-down dwellings with lean-to kitchens that stood where the entrance to Nursery Gardens is now. In the 1920's there was a well with a decaying lid and wobbly windlass in front of the cottages: their only supply of water.

